

POST OFFICE INFORMATION SLIPS (3)
REPUBLIC OF CHINA

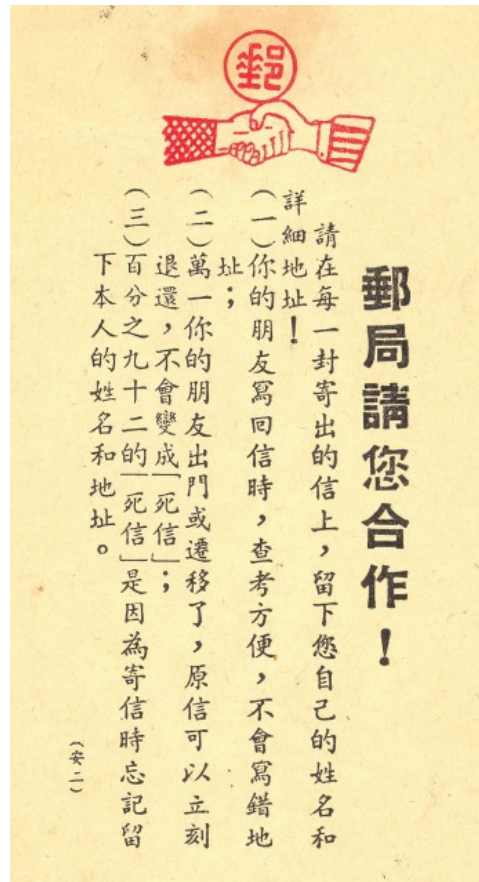

Ai Li-shan

This series of four slips have the text in black and the post office logo and shaking hands in dark red. The shaking hands is symbolic of the cooperation between the public and the postal office.

This series of information slips are very close in size, 74 x 134 mm. The white paper being rather thick and of poor quality. The thickness varies from .0042 to .0046 inches. The slips are numbered in the lower left corner 1 to 4.

Slip 7

Slip 8

7. Used Shanghai September 18-20, 1947 (three covers examined) (Slip numbered 1)
TRANSLATION:

THE POST OFFICE ASKS YOUR COOPERATION!

To facilitate the safe and prompt delivery of your mail, please write the address correctly. For example:

“Mr. Lou Shu-bun
Section I
Post and Telecommunication Department
Ministry of Communications
No. 761, Chung-Shan North Road, Nanking”

Do not write only:

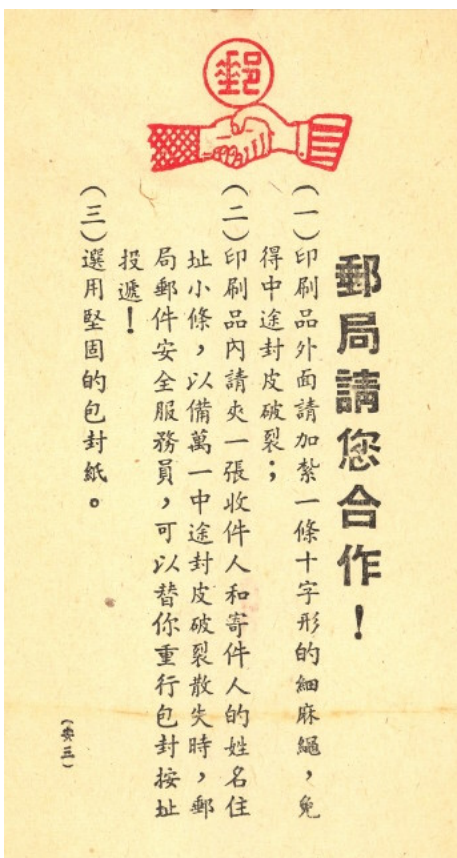

“Mr. Lou Shu-bun
Ministry of Communications
Nanking”

8. Used Shanghai September 17, 1947 (Slip numbered 2)
TRANSLATION:

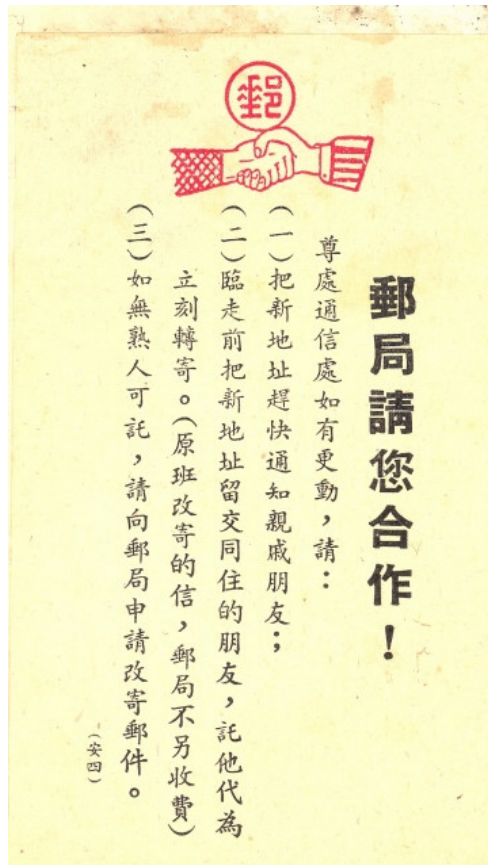

THE POST OFFICE ASKS YOUR COOPERATION!

Please write your own name and address on every envelope you mail:

- (1) to facilitate your friend writing the proper address without mistakes on the cover when he write to you.
- (2) to enable the post office to return your letter immediately when undeliverable due to absence or removal of your friend, and
- (3) please note that there are 92% of undeliverable letters becoming dead due to neglecting to write the sender's name and address.

Slip 9

Slip 10

9. Used Shanghai September 19, 1947 (slip numbered 3)
TRANSLATION

THE POST OFFICE ASKS YOUR COOPERATION!

- (1) Please tie the printed matter package with a thin hemp rope in a cross to avoid a break during delivery;
- (2) Kindly put inside the printed matter you mail a note with the name and addresses of the sender and the addressee so that in case the package is broken, the mail safety staff of the post office can repack it for you.
- (3) Choose a durable wrapping paper.

10. Used Nanking June 25, 1948 (Slip numbered 4)
TRANSLATION

THE POST OFFICE ASKS YOUR COOPERATION!

In case of a change of address, please:

- (1) Notify your relatives and friends of your new address.
- (2) Before you moving, leave your new address to some friend still living there and ask him for a favor of redirecting letters immediately for you. (it is free of charge for redelivering the mail via the same dispatching method.)
- (3) In case there is no acquaintance whom you may ask the above favor, please apply for the redirection of mail service in the post office.